GROUP NOTES

1. According to Psalm 23:1-4, what are some characteristics of the shepherd that provide comfort and restoration for the sheep?

2. How do we reconcile the concept of God's discipline with His love and desire for our restoration?

3. How can we actively practice trusting the shepherd in times of difficulty and discipline?

4. How can we encourage one another in the group to continually trust, listen, and follow the shepherd, especially during difficult times?

5. Can you share a personal experience where God's discipline led to restoration and a deeper understanding of His love and guidance?

6. How can we encourage one another in the group to continually trust, listen, and follow the shepherd, especially during difficult times?
