GROUP NOTES

1. How did Job's friends respond to his suffering? In what ways did their criticism impact Job, and how can we navigate offering support without being judgmental?
2. Identify instances of legalistic thinking. How does a legalistic approach hinder understanding and empathy? How can we avoid legalism in our responses to others' struggles?
3. Share personal experiences of receiving or witnessing criticism during challenging times. How did it impact you, and what strategies can be employed to offer constructive support instead?
4. How does Job articulate his frustration, and what can we learn about expressing our own struggles with authenticity?
5. Reflect on Job's faith in God in the midst of adversity. How can faith serve as a source of strength in difficult times?
6. Consider the lessons that can be learned from Job's faith journey. How can his experiences inform our own perspectives on faith, perseverance, and hope in God?
